Foreword by Professor Barry Zimmerman

Preface

PART I - Conceptualizations of the SRL Field

1. The Trajectory of Scholarship about Self-Regulated Learning - Philip Winne
2. The Seductive Waltz with the Self in Self-Regulated Learning: Toward Communal Regulation of Learning - Chen Schechter
3. Affect, Epistemic Emotions, Metacognition, and Self-Regulated Learning - Anastasia Efklides
4. Coupling between Metacognition and Emotions during STEM Learning with Advanced Learning Technologies: A Critical Analysis, Implications for Future Research, and Design of Learning Systems - Roger Azevedo, Nicholas Mudrick, Michelle Taub, Franz Wortha

PART II - Measuring and Evaluating SRL

5. Assessing Metacognitive Deficiencies and Effectively Instructing Metacognitive Skills - Marcel Veenman
6. What Teachers Know and Do about Assessing Students' Self-Regulated Learning - Tova Michalsky

PART III - Promoting Teachers' SRL Skills and Pedagogy

7. Cognitive Modeling and Self-Regulation of Learning in Instructional Settings - Marie White
8. Teaching and Learning Hand in Hand: Adaptive Teaching and Self-Regulated Learning - Judi Randi
9. Probing Teachers' Lesson Planning: Promoting Metacognition - Billie Eilam

PART IV - Promoting Students' SRL in Diverse Educational Contexts

10. Individual Differences and Learning Contexts: A Self-Regulated Learning Perspective - Adar Ben-Eliyahu
